Carvana customers shop for and purchase their next vehicle entirely online, saving valuable time and money. With a great selection, great price and great customer experience, Carvana offers consumers a car buying experience focused on transparency and ease. Along with a detailed virtual tour featuring high-definition, 360-degree photos, every vehicle is Carvana Certified, meaning it has undergone a rigorous 150-point inspection, has no frame damage and has never been in a reported accident. Features, imperfections and updated information about open safety recalls are listed on the car's vehicle description page.

Carvana vehicles also come with a 7-day return policy, giving customers the time to ensure their vehicle fits their life. Whether it's getting all the hockey equipment in the trunk or seeing if car seats fit, this time with the vehicle is an upgrade to the traditional four right-hand turns around the dealership's block.

"As we make our official debut in Wisconsin, we're confident we can deliver on the diverse needs of area customers," said Ernie Garcia, founder and CEO of Carvana. "Madison and Milwaukee are cities that play an important role in our expansion throughout the Midwest and we are looking forward to showing them the new way to buy a car."

With today's launch in Wisconsin, Carvana now offers as-soon-as-next-day vehicle delivery in 85 markets across 28 states in the U.S.
