Customers who visit Carvana.com from home or on the go via their mobile device can shop more than 10,000 vehicles, finance, purchase and schedule as-soon-as-next-day delivery or Car Vending Machine pickup in as little as 10 minutes. Upon arriving at the Car Vending Machine, customers receive a commemorative, oversized Carvana coin to activate the vending process and transport the car into the delivery bay. The pick-up process typically takes only minutes, compared to hours haggling at the dealership. This is Carvana's 13th Car Vending Machine to date, joining 12 counterparts across the country in: Houston, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Nashville (Tenn.), Raleigh (N.C.), Charlotte (N.C.), Jacksonville (Fla.), Tampa (Fla.), Orlando (Fla.), Washington, D.C. and Tempe (Ariz.).

Carvana customers save valuable time and money by shopping online and every Carvana vehicle comes with a seven-day return policy, giving customers the chance to see if the vehicle really fits their life. Additionally, all Carvana vehicles are Carvana Certified, meaning they have passed a rigorous 150-point inspection, have never been in a reported accident, and have no frame damage. Features, imperfections and updated information about open safety recalls are listed on every car's vehicle description page.

Carvana debuted in Ohio in September 2016, launching in Columbus, the company's 16th market. Later that year, Cleveland and Cincinnati joined the Ohio roster. Today, Carvana offers free, as-soon-as-next-day delivery in about 70 markets across the country.

"We have been proud to give many Ohio residents a new way to buy a car since 2016," said Ernie Garcia, founder and CEO of Carvana. "We're honored to now debut our newest Car Vending Machine in Cleveland, as well as expand our free, as-soon-as-next-day vehicle delivery to four more cities in the state, less than two years later."
