With this launch, Los Angeles-area customers interested in selling their vehicles to Carvana can also take advantage of same-day pickup and drop-off after completing Carvana's online vehicle appraisal process.

"Our experience was fantastic," said Katrina S., a local California customer. "We found the car we loved, completed the purchase, and scheduled delivery all within about 30 minutes, and we had it in our driveway in less than 24 hours. This is our second purchase with Carvana, and I tell everyone I know about it. Carvana truly makes car buying easier than buying a cell phone."

Carvana's intuitive e-commerce platform allows customers to shop from tens of thousands of high-quality vehicles, secure financing, trade in a vehicle, and complete a purchase entirely online.

"After serving Los Angeles customers for many years, we're excited to introduce even more speed and convenience with same-day delivery," said Jacqueline Hearn, Carvana's Senior Director of Market Operations and Expansion. "The combination of our deep local infrastructure and growing logistics network now allow eligible customers across greater Los Angeles to go from online checkout to driveway delivery in just hours. Customers can now also opt for same-day pickup at one of Carvana's two Vending Machines in the area, providing even more flexibility in the car buying or selling experience."

Initially launched in Arizona, Carvana's same-day delivery service is currently available in select markets across more than 20 states. The company plans to continue scaling the offering regionally as it expands its national logistics and reconditioning infrastructure.
